Revolution. Peter and a son Myndert, with neighbors were arrested and jailed at Poughkeepsie. Not being proven guilty, they were released, even though other members of the family were definitely pro-British.

In 1776, Peter and his first wife conveyed 3 acres of land to son Abraham, but returned to the parents before the end of the war. The reason was that Abraham was in New York with the British. The land was intended for Abraham. Eventually went to his brother Mindert.

Peter d. in June 1797, leaving a will, dated June 5th, proved June 27th, and filed at Trenton. He left his property to his nine children and granddaughters, Margaret, daughter of his daughter Annatje, deceased, providing that all of them provided for his son, Jeremiah, an incompetent, as long as he lived. Son, Isaac received the homestead.

Dr. Burleigh
Quinte Chapter Genealogist
United Empire Loyalists Association
BATH (near Adolphustown), Ontario

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Mrs. David R. Taylor, Secretary of the Prince Edward Historical Society at Picton, tells us you are genealogist for the Quinte Chapter of the United Empire Loyalists Association. What we are particularly interested in is some genealogical and historical information on Captain Abraham Maybee, born 1736 and died 17/6/1832 at Adolphustown. He is believed to have been a Loyalist spy. There is a record of an Abraham Maybie who was held in jail at Wethersfield, Connecticut. In the Public Papers of Governor George Clinton of New York, we find in Volume 4 page 50 9/19/1778, the case of Hammell and Geake, showing a proposal for exchanging prisoners. Those listed were James Dole for Abraham Mabie, Loyalist. We also know of said Abraham's activities along the Hudson River.

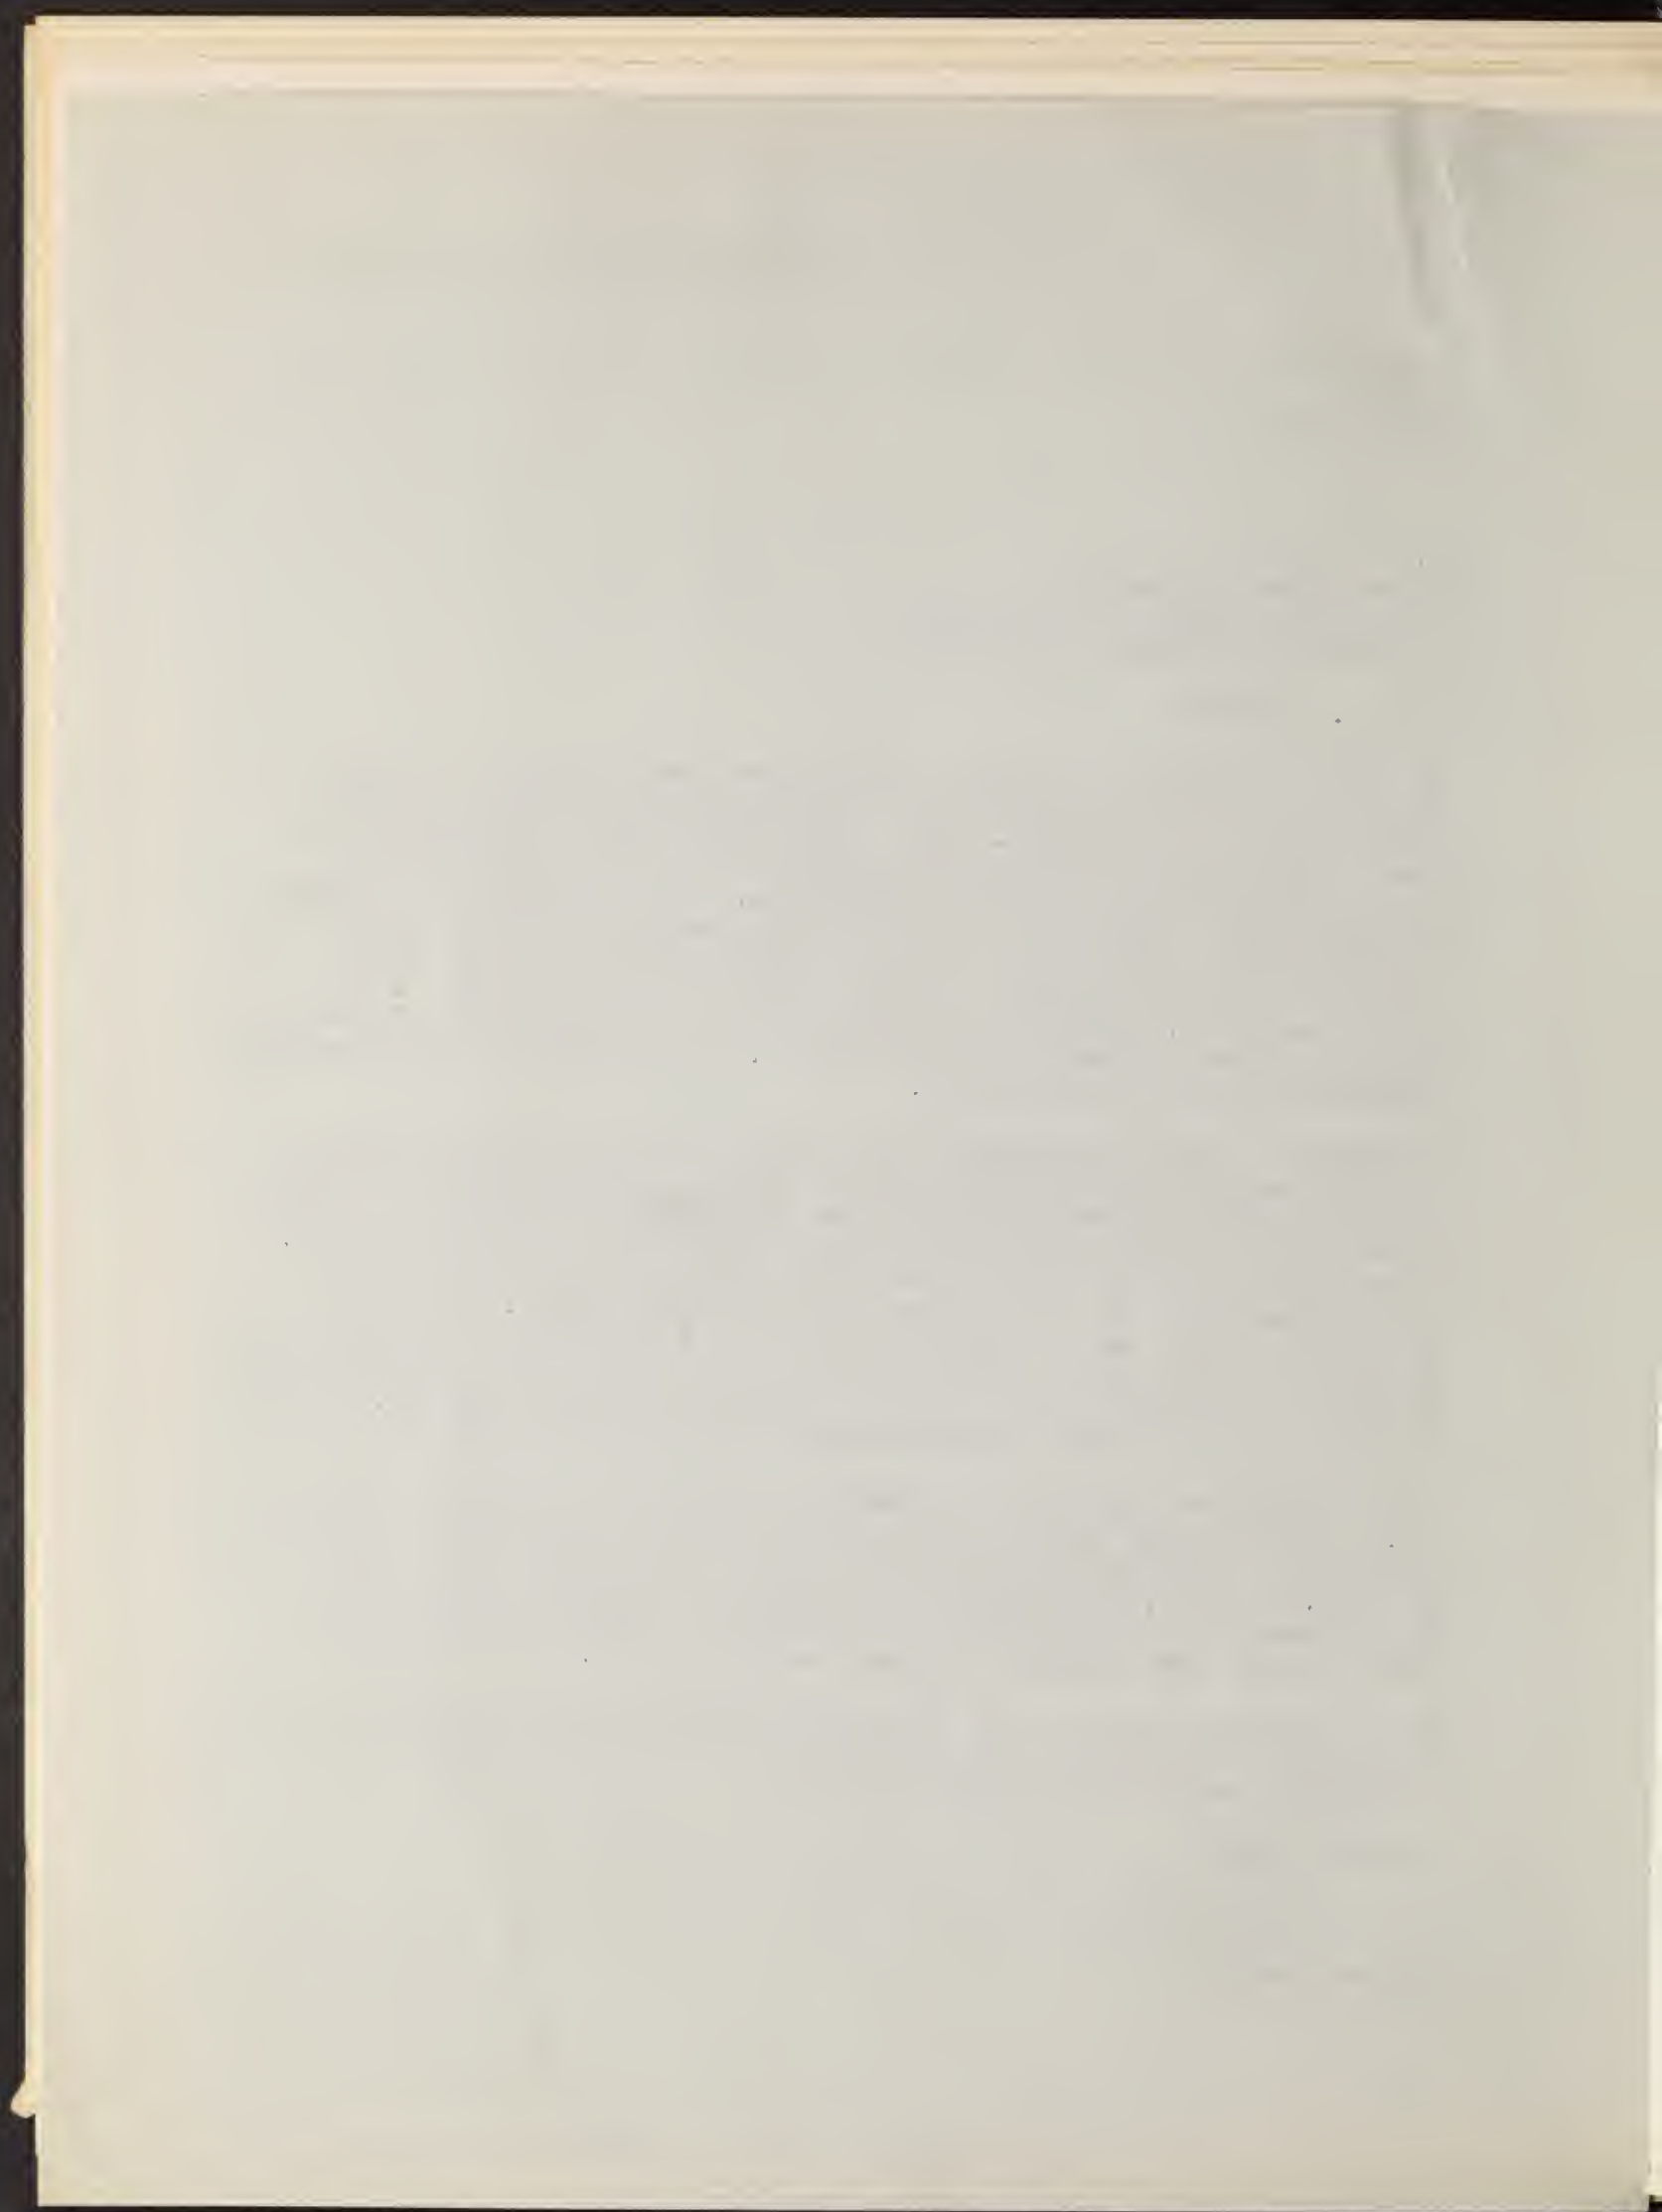

The reason we are so interested in him is that my wife is descended from him (his great great great granddaughter Lorena Maybee is my wife's mother--married to Harold Telfer Adams and lived at Wellington from 1936 to 1945). If you happen to have any information on him we would be grateful for it. We know he married Ann Huff Ackerman 4/22/1781, and there is a memorial stone in her memory at the Anglican Church at Adolphustown. Ann Huff Ackerman, however, was his second wife, and it is the first marriage we are interested in most, since that is the marriage of which Peter, our ancestor, was born. He was born about 1774, and lived at Hallowell, Ontario. He is mentioned in a government Order-in-Council (land records) dated 31 July 1797.

Also, we would very much like to know who Captain Abraham Maybee's father was. He is believed to be a descendent of Seigneur Pierre Mabilie de Nevi, a well-to-do Frenchman who fled France after the massacre of St. Bartholomew's Day, Aug. 24, 1572, because he was a Huguenot. He fled to Holland, and a son emigrated to New York (then New Amsterdam), where the Mabilie family (some of whom later changed to Maybee) was carried on.

Any information you might have on Captain Abraham Maybee as well as his first wife and his son Peter, or any advice on where we might dig for such information, would be gratefully received.

Sincerely yours,

Leonard Stahl

Mr. Leonard Stahl,

Sherwood Park, Alberta.

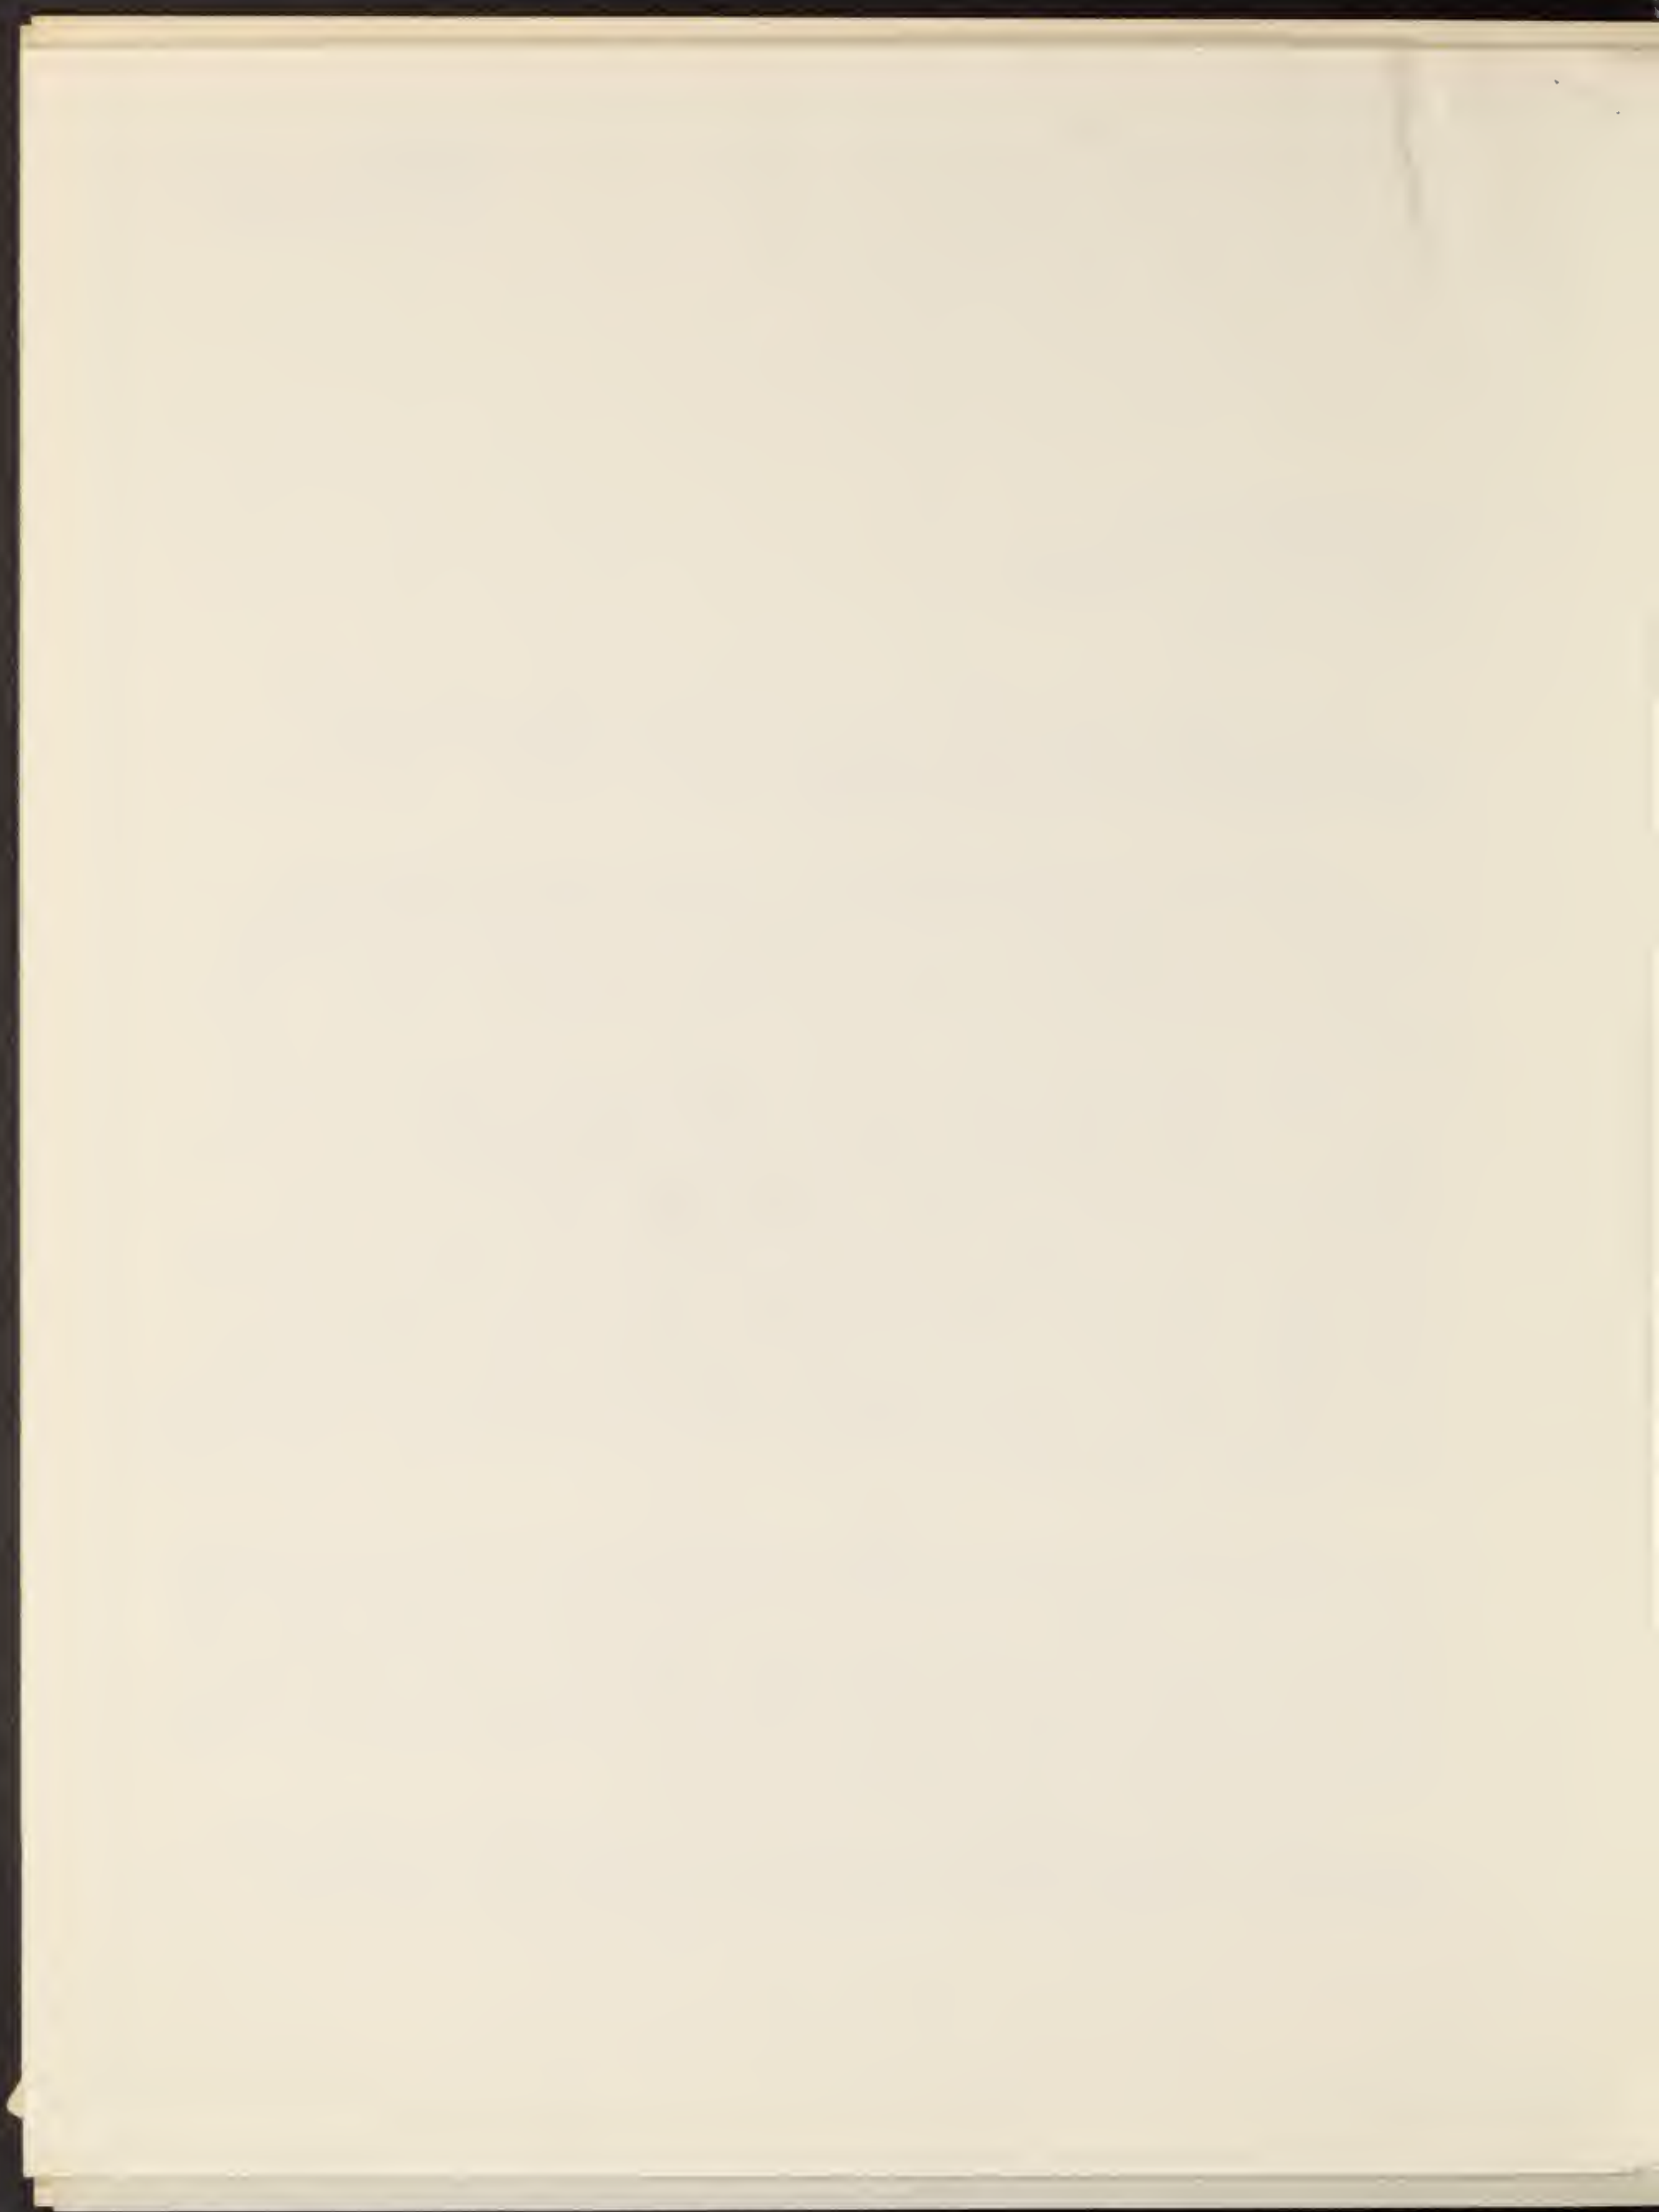

Dear Mr. Stahl,

Your letter of April 7 was passed to me the other day by Dr. H.C. Burleigh of Bath, since I am also a member of the Adolphustown chapter of the United Empire Loyalists Association and a descendent of Captain Abraham Mable.

I started some research on the Maybee family initially in the early 1930's which continued on and off until about 1946. It was then interrupted by the business of making a living until recently. At the moment I am endeavouring to obtain the answer to the questions that you ask about Capt. Abraham's father. This is not a new problem I was trying to solve it in the '30's. The best lead so far seems to indicate that he was the Loyalist spy of Tappan, Rockland County as you mention but if so, he was not born in 1736 but in 1748 or thereabouts and the tablet to his memory in Adolphustown church is in error by about 12 years as it effects his age when he died. This is not improbable. When I receive two books now on order through the Inter Library Loan Service, I hope to prove or disapprove the "spy" theory. If proved to be true, then his father was Peter born 1717 of Tappan, whose father was Peter born 1689 of Tappan, whose father was Caspar born 1660 of Claster, N.J., whose father was Pierre Gaspard born about 1600 of New Amsterdam, whose father was Caspar de Sergeant born about 1575 of Leyden, Holland later New Amsterdam, whose father was Seigneur Pierre Mabilie de Nevy of Naarden, Holland, and earlier Nevy (Nevvy), France.

Capt. Abraham was undoubtedly married twice. He married his second wife Ann Ackerman in 1781 before coming to Canada in August 1783 who was a widow. There was a widow Ackerman living near Old Tappan, N.J. at the time of the war. This may have been Ann. It appears that his children Abraham Jr. born about 1771, Jane born about 1772, Peter born 1773-4 and Robert McDowal, born 1775-6, were born of his first wife, and that Elizabeth baptized 1788 and Isaac baptized 1791 were Ann Ackerman's children.

I note with interest that you claim Peter to have been born about 1774. This coincides with the date at which I arrived strictly by calculation. I would be interested to know the authority for your date.

I am also a descendent of Peter through his son Solomon born 1811. There seems to be little information about him. I have no details concerning his marriage or death. He was known as Peter of Hallowell but there is no record that he owned any land in Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County although a record indicates that he paid two shillings taxes in Hallowell on July 18, 1798. He is mentioned in a Return of Inhabitants of Adolphustown dated 14 April 1797 and was appointed constable of Adolphustown January 5, 1824. He apparently was not in Hallowell very long. The Order-in-Council of July 31, 1797 should describe the land granted. I do not have a copy yet.

Sources of information with respect to United Empire Loyalist's and descendants are mostly church records. Ontario Archives in Toronto and the Public Archives in Ottawa, plus various books written during the 19th century. The information in the latter is often contradictory and unreliable. Information about the parentage of United Empire Loyalist's must be obtained from American sources, again mostly Church records or copies of them.

I shall be pleased to forward anything new that I discover about Captain Abraham and I hope, within the next few weeks.

I am enclosing duplicate copies of my charts that include your wife's branch of the family. You will note that they are quite incomplete. I will appreciate it, if you will add any information that you can and return one copy to me. The other is for your retention in case there is information that you do not have.

Yours truly,

Ralph D Maybee, U.E.

Dear Sir:

F. C. Beer, Queen's University, suggested that I apply to you for information regarding the Abraham Maybee Family.

I have just recently become interested in the family history. Consequently, I have few facts to go on and some of the information conflicts.

I do know my Grandfather, Abraham Maybee, 1850-1923, was the descendant of Abraham Maybee, a Loyalist, among first settlers in Adolphustown Township.

My Grandfather was the son of Peter and Esther Yoelman Maybee. My Grandmother, Sarah Jane Sanders, was the daughter of Jo Anne Salter Sanders and Benjamin Franklin Sanders.

Along with my interest in the Maybee Family, I am curious about the history of Bay of Quinte area. However, I have been unable to find written anything pertaining to subject. Could you recommend any literature?

John I would be most grateful for any information you could give me.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance and that it has not been completely solved.

2. In the second part of the paper, the author gives a detailed account of the work done in this field. It is shown that the problem can be reduced to a series of simpler problems, which can be solved by the method of successive approximations.

3. The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results obtained. It is shown that the method of successive approximations is very effective and that it can be applied to a wide range of problems.

4. In the fourth part of the paper, the author gives a detailed account of the work done in this field. It is shown that the problem can be reduced to a series of simpler problems, which can be solved by the method of successive approximations.

5. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results obtained. It is shown that the method of successive approximations is very effective and that it can be applied to a wide range of problems.

U. E. L. Claims.

905. Claim of Elenor Maybee, Widow of Peter Maybee, late of Albany
 Co. Montreal, Sep. 28, 1787.

Claimt. says:

She resided in Sorel in '83. Her Eldest Son, John, is 22 yrs. of age.
 She is married to Joseph Hoffman. Her Son lives with him.

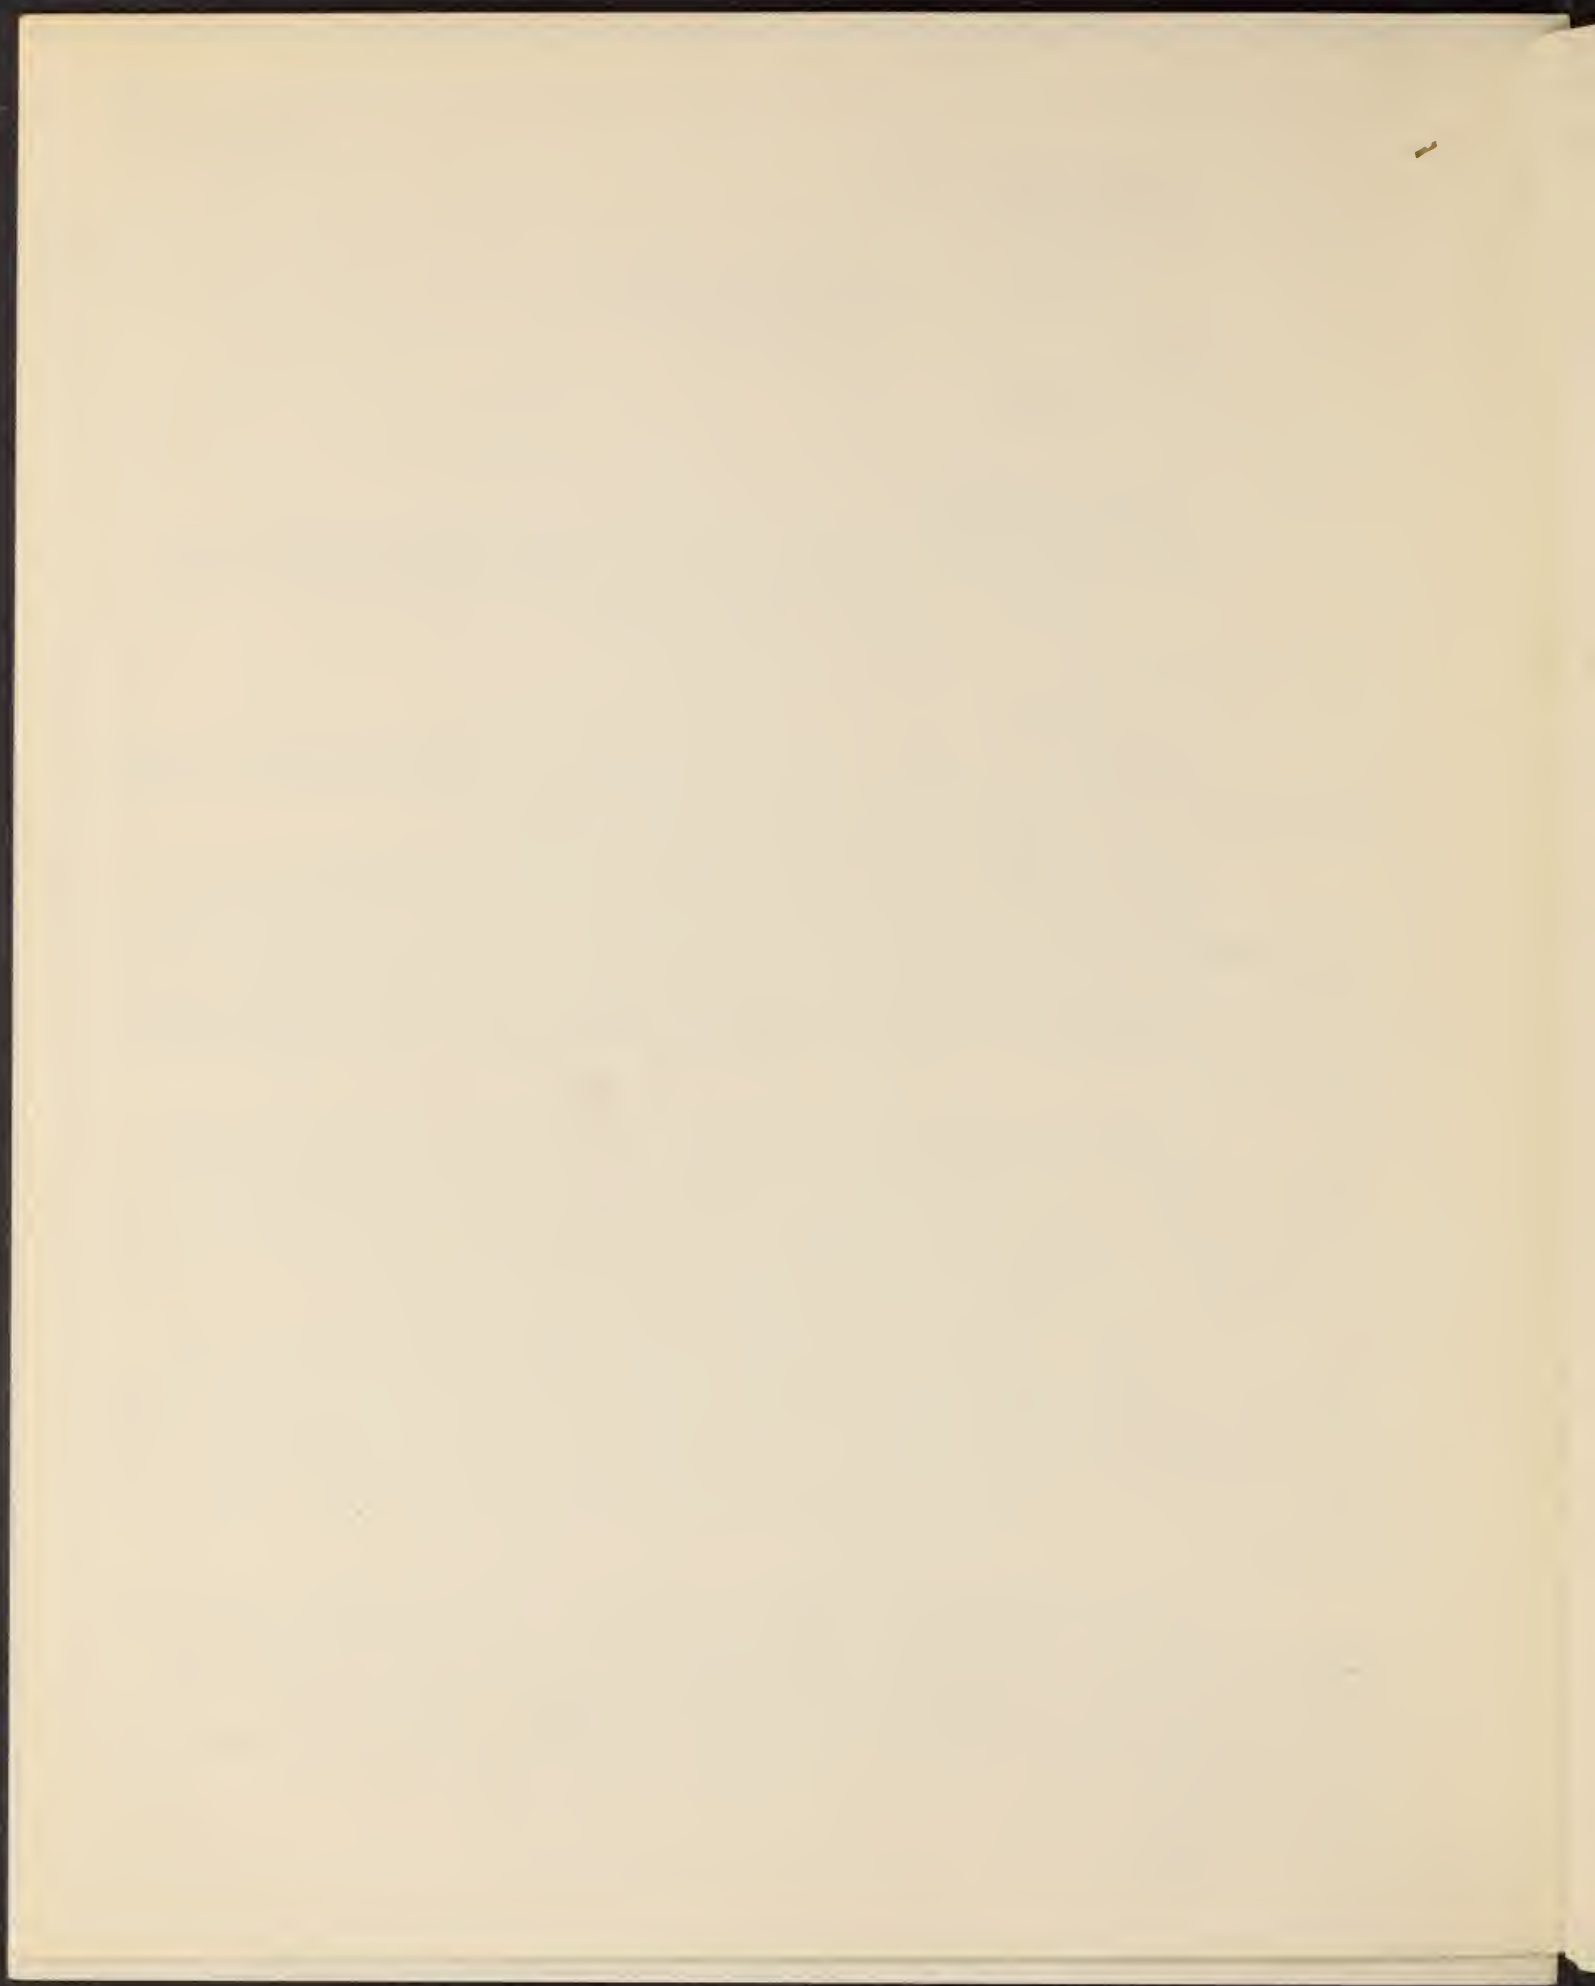

Her late Husb., Peter, was a native of America, lived at Saratoga, joined the Brit. in '76, joined Col. Jessup. Died in Canada the Winter of '77.
 He had been with Burg., served that Campaign. She went to Canada Summer after Husb's. death.

No. 1. Her Husb. had 150 acres in Dutchess Co., he had it by gift from his father 20 years ago on his marriage. He lived there 4 years. 90 acres Clear, he let it when he went away. She thinks the Rent was L19 per Ann.

No. 2. He went & settled at Saratoga on Lease Land, he had a Lease for 3 Lives 8 or 9 years before the War. He had about 100 acres, rent was L4.10 York after ten years. He had improved 60 acres. Has heard a rebel officer is settled on No. 1.

He had 2 good horses, 2 Cows, 2 Calves, 18 Sheep, 16 Hogs, furniture, utensils, cloathes. Claimt. was in Possession of the Place. All these things were taken from her in Summer '77, taken by the Rebels because her Husband had gone to Canada.

Jonas

Jonas Amey, Wits.:

Knew the late Peter Maybee, he joined the Brit. in '76, served in Burg's Campaign, died ~~in~~ the Winter after. Knew his farm at Saratoga, it was a Lease farm, 60 acres Clear. He had been there some years before the War. He had a pretty good Stock.

Martin Hover, Wits.:

Knew Peter Maybee. Remembers his coming to Saratoga. Heard he had left a farm of his own when he came there.

Further Evidences in Case of Eleanor Maybee, v. Vol. 21, f. 112.

Montreal, Feb. 21, 1788.

Joseph Hoffman, her present Husband appears--says he was informed by several persons that the late Peter Maybee had 150 acres of Land, of which he had the soil Right, in Dutchess Co.--has heard a great deal was cleared. Heard he let it when he went to Albany Co., to one Miller. There was a great deal of Rent due which Peter Maybee never rec'd.--has understood that Miller was driven away from his Farm. Thinks Peter Maybee had left Dutchess Co. 9 or 10 years before the war began.

Personal Notes.

Abraham Maybee was one of the pioneers and settled on a farm just east of the Allens, where Adolphustown village now stands. He was a Captain in the Militia and was popularly known as "Captain Maybee." He had a blacksmith shop and a sawmill just adjoining the village, but no vestiges of them are now left. He is mentioned in the original Government record as "Captain of Associated Loyalists." He lived and died on that farm, dying June 17th, 1832, at the advanced age of 96 years. Parker Allen now remembers helping his father carry the old man on a bed out of the house when it was on fire. He came from Dutchess County, New York. He had two sons, Robert and Isaac. Isaac was in the war of 1812, and died while thus in the services. Robert was drowned off a raft in the St. Lawrence when on the way to Quebec. Both were unmarried. He had two daughters. Elizabeth married Noxon Harris, a former prominent resident. One of his daughters, Mrs. Garner, still lives in the township, and is now the oldest woman in it. Jane married Dr. Samuel Neilson, at Ernesttown, and was the mother of Judge Joseph Neilson, who presided at the celebrated Henry Ward Beecher trial in New York, some years ago. He lies buried beside his father and mother in the Morven Methodist Church burying ground in Ernesttown.
